

Nancy Clark

Vice President, Mutual Faith Ministries & Network

Nancy is a pastor, overseer, and teacher in the Church at large whose spirited focus is to see people encouraged and strengthened in their callings.

Her ministerial heritage, diverse ministry experience, and love for the multicultural body of Christ have caused many to embrace her as a trusted friend in the Gospel and the ministry.

A frequent leadership and church conference speaker, Nancy has a prophetic voice that empowers and impacts hearers to do the work of the ministry. Having planted and pastored churches, taught at Bible schools and in foreign fields, and conducted leadership coaching, she is all about emboldening people to fulfill their callings, with particular attention to the now generation.

Nancy has served as a tenured minister and director of various national boards including missions, women ministries, and churches. In 2012, she completed over seventeen years as the National Director of W.I.L.L.O.W., the Women's Ministries of Elim Fellowship, Lima, NY.

Additionally, she served as an officer of the Evangelical Women Leaders (EWL) of the National Association of Evangelicals for over ten years. She served as the President of EWL for five years, concurrently serving on the Board of Directors of the National Association of Evangelicals for the same five years.
